

Synopsis for My Date From Hell

(The Blooming Goddess Trilogy Book Two)

2-line Summary:

YA romantic comedy/Greek myth fireworks continue to fly between Sophie & Kai in My Date From Hell. Breaking up is easy; dating is deadly.

Short Synopsis:

After the world's greatest kiss re-awakened Sophie's true identity as Persephone (Goddess of Spring), her backstabbing ex, Kai (sexy Prince of Darkness) betrayed her. Now meddling Aphrodite partners Sophie and Kai to work together ... and treat this suicide mission as a date. Which could work out for Sophie's plan to force Kai to admit his feelings for her—if she doesn't kill him first. The YA romantic comedy/Greek mythology fireworks continue in My Date From Hell.

Medium Synopsis:

Whatever happened to dinner and a movie?

With Zeus stepping things up, it's vital that Sophie retrieve Persephone's memories and discover the location of the ritual to stop Zeus and Hades. So when Aphrodite strikes a deal that can unlock Sophie's pre-mortal past, what choice does the teen goddess have but to accept?

The mission: stop media mogul Hermes from turning mean girl Bethany into a global mega-celebrity. The catch? Aphrodite partners Sophie and Kai to work together ... and treat this suicide mission as a date. Which could work out for Sophie's plan to force Kai to admit his feelings for her—if she doesn't kill him first.
